

AND THE WINNER IS...

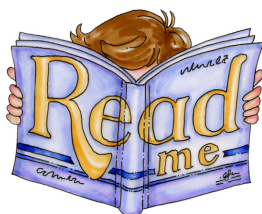

The Caldecott Medal was named in honor of nineteenth-century English illustrator Randolph Caldecott. It is awarded annually by the Association for Library Service to Children, a division of the American Library Association, to the artist of the most distinguished American picture book for children.

The John Newbery Medal is a literary award given by the Association for Library Service to Children, a division of the American Library Association (ALA). The award is given to the author of "the most distinguished contribution to American literature for children."

A partial list of this year's Newbery finalists can be found on the back of this paper, or you can use various search engines to find a complete list of books on the "Mock Newbery 2019 list."

During winter break, Kenter Canyon students are encouraged to read award-winning books with these honorable seals on them or newly released books that have been nominated for these 2019 distinguished awards. In January, Kenter Canyon students will be able to enjoy a static display in our school's library featuring Newbery and Caldecott award-winning books. When the 2019 winners are announced on January 26, it will be fun to recognize Kenter Canyon students who have read some of these selections and to predict the book titles that will earn the 2019 awards. Welcome the New Year with a new book!!! Spend time with family, friends and an award winning book during the winter break vacation.
